1. Under the direction of Soviet officers, the Bulgarians are hurriedly constructing military fortifications along the Yugoslav-Bulgarian frontier, from the mouth of the Timok River (where it joins the Danube) to a point opposite Bosiljgrad, Yugoslavia.
2. No description of these fortifications is available, other than they are similar to those built by the Soviets for defense against the Nazis during the last war.
3. The Bulgarian Army is currently being equipped with an unusual quantity of artillery pieces. No information relative to types and calibers was available.
